

Identification Systems

Cabletec is fully established as one of the market leaders in the supply of high performance wire and cable identification systems and products. With its broad range of identification products and the high level of technical knowledge of its employees, Cabletec is able to offer effective and economical solutions to a wide range of identification needs for many applications and environments.

Cabletec's identification products include industry leading brand names such as Raychem, Critchley and MAM combined with products manufactured by and unique to Cabletec.

Printer Selection

T107M

T107M - A quick, versatile and convenient hand held printer for printing heat-shrink markers and labels supplied in easy to install cartridges. It is perfect for the professional user who needs an affordable label printer that's tough and easy to use.

T208M

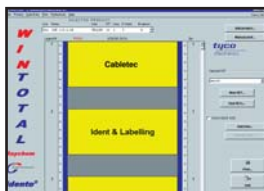

T208M - A lightweight and low cost desktop thermal transfer printer for System 6 heat-shrink markers and labels. It is fully compatible with Wintotal software and is perfect for medium to low volume users of printed markers.

T312M

T312M - A fast, effective and robust thermal transfer printer for printing System 6 markers, labels and HL and HLX cable markers. Its printing speeds are fast and it is fully compatible with Wintotal software. The T312M is perfect for large volume users of printer markers.

For further information on the above printers please contact our sales office.

WinTotal Software

WinTotal Software

- Marker design and print software
- Import and export functions
- Printer multi-tasking
- Graphics and logo design
- Set and batch printing capabilities
- Serial number and alphanumeric options
- Local or network printer support

cabletec